The cruise line has prepared a beautiful route along the Fiordland coast, where a guide will share stories and interesting facts about the region.

During the cruise, the cruise line provides an unforgettable experience with a scenic journey along the coast of Fiordland. Upon arrival in Fiordland, participants can either disembark or take part in a scenic cruise. The cruise line has prepared a beautiful route along the Fiordland coast, where a guide will share stories and interesting facts about the region.

Fiordland is a spectacular region in the southwestern part of New Zealand, forming part of Fiordland National Park, one of the largest national parks in the country and one of the most impressive places in the world. This region is best known for its breathtaking fjords, mountainous landscapes, and abundant wildlife.

Geography and Nature

Fiordland covers over 12,500 square kilometers and features incredibly diverse terrain. It is home to deep, fjord-like bays, towering mountain peaks, and dense rainforests. The most famous fjords include Milford Sound, Doubtful Sound, and Dusky Sound. Milford Sound, the most renowned of the fjords, is often referred to as the "eighth wonder of the world" due to its stunning views. Here, steep cliffs rise directly from the water, and numerous waterfalls cascade down from hundreds of meters above.

Flora and Fauna

Fiordland is home to unique and diverse flora and fauna. The forests are filled with trees such as southern beech, and in the lower areas, various species of ferns can be found. The waters of the fjords are home to numerous marine species, including dolphins, seals, and penguins. On land, you may encounter birds such as the kiwi, kakapo, and takahe, which are endemic to New Zealand.

History and Culture

Fiordland has a rich history, both Maori and European. The Maori, the indigenous people of New Zealand, called this region "Te Rua-o-te-moko" (The Valley of the Hammer). For the Maori, Fiordland was a place for hunting birds and collecting jade (pounamu). European explorers and settlers began exploring the region in the 18th century, with Captain James Cook being one of the first Europeans to reach it.

Tourism and Attractions

Fiordland is one of the most popular tourist destinations in New Zealand. Visitors come to admire the natural beauty, hike numerous trails (such as the famous Milford Track), embark on a fjord cruise, and observe wildlife. Milford Sound offers numerous boat tours, where you can marvel at majestic landscapes and marine wildlife.

Conservation

Due to its unique ecosystems and wildlife, Fiordland is protected as part of a UNESCO World Heritage site under the Te Wahipounamu area. The conservation of this region is crucial for preserving its natural beauty and biodiversity.

Fiordland is a place that captivates with its wild, rugged beauty and is a true paradise for nature lovers, adventurers, and photographers. Its isolated, pristine landscapes leave an unforgettable impression on anyone fortunate enough to visit.

Dunedin/ New Zealand

Dunedin is a city located on the southern coast of New Zealand's South Island, in the Otago region. It is one of the oldest cities in the country, founded by Scottish settlers in 1848. The name "Dunedin" comes from the Scottish Gaelic name for Edinburgh, "Dùn Èideann."

Historical and Cultural Significance

Dunedin is known for its rich history and strong Scottish roots. The city is home to many historic buildings, including beautiful examples of Victorian and Edwardian architecture. The University of Otago, established in 1869, is the oldest university in New Zealand and plays a central role in the city's life.

Natural Beauty and Wildlife

Dunedin is surrounded by stunning landscapes, including hills and coastline. One of the most significant tourist attractions is the Otago Peninsula, home to many rare wildlife species, such as yellow-eyed penguins, royal albatrosses, and sea lions. The peninsula offers spectacular views of the ocean and cliffs. It also features several nature reserves, such as Taiaroa Head, where you can observe a colony of royal albatrosses. This is one of the few places in the world where you can see these majestic birds up close.

Notable Attractions in Dunedin

Baldwin Street

Baldwin Street is recognized by the Guinness Book of Records as the steepest street in the world, with a gradient of about 35%. Walking up and down the street is a challenge and a popular tourist attraction. It draws visitors and participants in various events, such as the Cadbury Jaffa Race and the Baldwin Street Gutbuster.

Dunedin Railway Station

The Dunedin Railway Station is an architectural gem and one of the most photographed buildings in New Zealand. Built in 1906 by George Troup, the station is an example of Edwardian and Victorian architecture with Flemish influences. It is known for its beautiful mosaics and ornate interiors.

Larnach Castle

Larnach Castle, the only castle in New Zealand, is located on the hills of the Otago Peninsula. The castle was built in the 1870s by William Larnach, a wealthy banker and politician. Today, the castle is a private residence open to the public. It features stunning interiors and gardens, as well as panoramic views of the surrounding area.

These attractions showcase the diversity Dunedin has to offer, from nature and architecture to history and culture.

Christchurch, the largest city on New Zealand's South Island, is renowned as the "Garden City" due to its extensive parks and gardens, including the famous Hagley Park and Christchurch Botanic Gardens.

As the gateway to the Canterbury region, Christchurch offers stunning landscapes, including mountains, beaches, and picturesque villages. It is also a significant cultural and academic hub, home to numerous museums, art galleries, and a major university. Here are some highlights to explore in Christchurch:

Christchurch Botanic Gardens

Established in 1863, the Christchurch Botanic Gardens are one of New Zealand's most renowned botanical gardens, located in the heart of the city along the banks of the Avon River. The gardens span 21 hectares and feature diverse plant collections, including tropical plants, alpine species, cacti, succulents, and beautiful flowering plants like rhododendrons, azaleas, and roses. Visitors can enjoy relaxing walks, picnics, and boat rides on the Avon River. Notable structures within the gardens include the Cuninghame House greenhouse, one of the largest glass structures in the Southern Hemisphere.

Antarctic Centre

The Antarctic Centre is an interactive science and education center located near Christchurch Airport. It offers fascinating exhibits and attractions related to Antarctic research and life. Visitors can experience a simulated snowstorm in a special climate chamber, see a colony of blue penguins, and ride in a Hagglund vehicle used for transportation in Antarctica. The center also features multimedia presentations on the history of Antarctic exploration and contemporary research on the continent, making it an excellent destination for visitors of all ages interested in one of the Earth's most extreme environments.

Hagley Park

Hagley Park, the largest urban park in Christchurch, covers approximately 165 hectares. Established in 1855, it is a central hub for the city's social and recreational life. The park offers numerous walking and cycling paths, sports fields, tennis courts, and Victoria Lake, where boating is popular. Hagley Park hosts various cultural, sports, and music events, including the annual World Buskers Festival. The Christchurch Botanic Gardens are located within the park, making it an ideal location for spending an entire day outdoors.

Canterbury Museum

The Canterbury Museum, located in a historic Neo-Gothic building near the Christchurch Botanic Gardens, offers a broad range of exhibits on the history and culture of the Canterbury region and New Zealand. Exhibits include artifacts related to Māori history, European pioneers, and Antarctic expeditions, including memorabilia from Sir Edmund Hillary. The museum also boasts extensive collections related to natural history, including fossils, minerals, and displays on New Zealand's flora and fauna. Admission to the museum is free, making it accessible to all visitors.

Start Mall

Start Mall is an innovative shopping center created in response to the devastation caused by the 2010 and 2011 earthquakes in Christchurch. It is made up of colorful shipping containers transformed into modern shops, cafes, and restaurants. The mall has become a symbol of the city's recovery and resilience, attracting both locals and tourists. It offers a wide range of unique products, from fashion and accessories to crafts and souvenirs. Additionally, it serves as a venue for various social and cultural events, making it a vibrant urban center.

These attractions highlight Christchurch's charm, offering a blend of natural beauty, cultural experiences, and innovative urban renewal.

an exclusive community of entrepreneurs that has been operating since 2017. Through the Business Club at Sea, we organize meetings for entrepreneurs in some of the world's most beautiful locations on luxury cruise ships. Along with our participants, the Business Club at Sea has traveled almost all over the world, from exotic Caribbean beaches to the coasts of the Far East.

So, what exactly is the Business Club at Sea? It's not just about travel; it's primarily a unique opportunity to connect entrepreneurs from various industries and regions. We are here to help solve business-related challenges and support you in reaching new clients and trusted business partners.

In the Club, we focus on creating a community of successful people who not only achieve their business goals but also seek to grow and support others on their path to success. That's why we connect individuals facing similar business challenges, both in Poland and abroad.

Our philosophy is based on comfortable conditions and a relaxed atmosphere that fosters building lasting business and personal relationships. This enables not only establishing new contacts but also developing deeper connections that lead to shared goals and business successes.

The aim of the Business Club at Sea is to provide participants with valuable business contacts, ensuring that not only this cruise but also future ones will be financially rewarding. Thanks to the relationships and opportunities arising from participation in the cruise, members have a chance to expand their network and benefit from new business perspectives.

Joining the Business Club at Sea requires a recommendation from a current Club member, which ensures the creation of a community of reliable and vetted entrepreneurs. If you are looking for a place where you can grow your business, meet inspiring people, and benefit from their experience, this is where you should be. Join us and explore the world of business opportunities at sea!

Agnieszka Pacuł-Wiśniewska
Owner of Roseti Med&Beauty

Since 2021, I have been running an aesthetic medicine clinic in Myślenice. Our team consists of top specialists in surgery, ophthalmology, physiotherapy, and aesthetic medicine who continuously enhance their qualifications and passionately develop the clinic with us. At our clinic, we offer a range of treatments in aesthetic and regenerative medicine, as well as anti-aging, adhering to the principle that self-acceptance and satisfaction with one's appearance are key to achieving life satisfaction and well-being. We are one of the few clinics in Poland performing lower eyelid surgery using the transconjunctival method. With our acquired knowledge and experience, we help each person regain self-confidence and satisfaction. Our primary goal is to achieve natural results while ensuring the highest level of safety and comfort for our patients.

If you need any adjustments or additional information, feel free to ask!
